The Count de Maceda, and the Baron Stentz.

Rome, Sept. 10. Tuesday Night last the Pretender ... a long Conference with Count Zalusky, Envoy ... King Stanislaus, and afterwards had a Visit from ... Cardinals Pico and Guadagni. Next Day the ...nce Giustriani dined with the Pretender, as did ...o several other Persons of Distinction.

Bolzano, Sept. 12. On the 8th Instant the Marshal ... Noailles removed from his Quarters at Castiglione ...le Stivere to the little Town of Villa Franca, 2 Leagues ...m Gussolengo in the Veronese, where the Marquis ... Maillebois, and the Count de Lautrec, Lieutenant ...enerals, arrived also the same Day with two Bodies ... Troops under their Command, and there form'd a ...mp with the Center at Gussolengo, their Right at ...llazuolo, and the Left at Zonales: As there is no Pas...e in the Country where this Camp is, which is a stony ...rren Soil, the Generals, just now mentioned, intend ... lay several Bridges over the Adige, in order to fetch ...visions and Forage from the other Side of that ...ver. The Marquis de Maillebois has detach'd 6000 ...en to take Possession of the Post of Coronna di Fer...ra, situate at the Neck of Monte Baldo, which com-municates with the Trentin: And the Brigade of Maine consisting of 8 Battalions, and commanded by the Marquis de Chayla, Major General, march'd on the 9th to Rivoly, a Post upon the Adige, three Leagues from Gussolengo. The King of Sardinia has resolved to fix his Head Quarters at Salo, a little Town of the Brescian, 7 Leagues from the Capital of this Province, and on the West Side of the Lake de Garda, where his Troops have already form'd a Camp, which extends to the Frontier of Tyrol. The Spaniards have been distributed for most Part into better Quarters in the Vicentin, which is one of the most fruitful Provinces of the State of Venice. On the 9th Instant, the Marquis de Savine, the French King's Lieutenant General, entered into the Veronese with 30 Squadrons and 12 Battalions, which he had brought together from remote Quarters, and form'd a Camp at Scala, 5 Leagues from Verona. Mean time, we have received Advice that the Imperial Generals Neuperg, Wachtendonck, Kevenhuiler, and Hamilton, being inform'd of the great Motions of the Troops of the Allies in the State of Venice, are advanc'd into the Necks of the Trent Country, which communicate with the Veronese and the Brescian; that two of those Generals have augmented the Garison of Riva upon the Lake di Garda to 4000 Men; and that they have all together form'd a Camp near Borghetto of about 28000 Men, including some Militia of Tyrol.

Genoa, Sep. 10. The Count deGuiccardi, the Imperial Envoy Extraordinary to this Republick, has been often in Conference for these 3 Weeks past, with the Members of the Senate, and we are assured he has proposed advantagious Terms to them, and to several rich Bankers of this City, to engage them to lend some Millions to the Emperor.

Ostiglia, Sept. 10. The Duke de Montemar, who join'd the Army on the 6th Instant, has since given Orders for a Line of Circumvallation to be begun round Mantua on the Side of the Seraglio. We hear that the City of Mantua is now so closely block'd up that nothing can enter, and the Spaniards are beginning to break Ground, in order to open Trenches; nevertheless we are assured, that in Consideration of the Hospital, and the sick Soldiers, the Duke de Noailles has given a Passport for the Admittance of 3 Hogsheads of Wine into the Town every Week.

Petersburg, Sept. 6. We are very impatient for News from Constantinople, because of a Report that the Grand Seignior is deposed, and the Sultan his Predecessor restored to his Throne. The Court having lately sent M. Kirilow, one of the Counsellors of State, with Orders for the building of a Town on the Frontiers of the Tartars call'd Baschkirckys and Kirguises, for facilitating a Commerce with those two Nations, and at the same time to open a Trade with Indostan, or the Great Mogul's Country; and having received no News of him since he went, they began to be in great Pain for him, because it was reported that he was put to Death by those Tartars; but the Court has just received an Express, with Advice, that those two Nations had not only consented to the said Establishment, but had actually promised him to promote it to the utmost of their Power.

The 29th ult. being the Birthday of the Empress of Germany, the Emperor's Ambassador, the Count d'Ostein, made an Entertainment upon that Occasion, and after Dinner all the Company went to a Meadow near the Gardens of the Court, to see the Exercises and Evolutions performed by one of the Regiments of Guards, in Presence of the Czarina; when it happened that the Ministers of the Emperor, England, Prussia, and the States General, passing a little Bridge over the Canal of the Garden, which was very slight, the same gave Way on a sudden, so that all the four Ministers had the Misfortune to fall into the Water, together with about a Score of the Officers of the Guards, who had all like to have been drowned, had it not been for some Boats in the Canal, as there commonly are upon such publick Days, whereby both the Ministers and Officers were immediately taken up, without any other Damage done than to their fine Cloaths; only the Dutch Minister's Fall was so unlucky, that he received a Hurt both in his Leg and Thigh. The Czarina sent to condole those Ministers upon their Disaster. The Nonconformists or Protestants of Poland and Lithuania, having sent Deputies to intreat the Czarina to support their Interests at the ensuing Dyet of Pacification, their Sollicitations have been powerfully seconded by the English and Dutch Ministers; and the Deputies are gone home very well satisfied, and furnished with a Letter of Recommendation from the Czarina to the Baron de Keyserling, her Minister in Poland.

Hamburgh, Sept. 20. The Regency of this City, after having asserted their Rights as long as they could, and being desirous to prevent the fatal Consequences with which the City was threatened on the Part of the King of Denmark, have at length agreed to an Accommodation with the said Prince, and to abolish their current Bank, which has been the sole Matter of Debate between them for these ten Years. The Regency have notified this Resolution to their Deputies at Copenhagen, and sent them the necessary Powers to sign the Accommodation; and we soon hope to hear, that the Hamburgh Ships which that Prince had seized, will be released with their Cargoes; and that the Freedom of Commerce between this City and Denmark, Norway, and Holstein, will be entirely re-established.

They write from Petersburg, that the Merchants of Muscow have acquainted their Correspondents and Partners there, that the Factors whom they sent to the Borysthenes, were happily returned to Muscow, and had brought from the Country of the Uskow Tartars, and others, that had put themselves under the Czarina's Protection, a Quantity of Skins, Wool, and other Merchandize, never seen before in Russia, as well as fine Horses; and as it seems that our Commerce is like to reap considerable Advantage from that Country, the chief Merchants of Muscow, Archangel, and Peterfburg, have resolved to form a Sort of Company, with a View to send Factors into those new discovered Countries, in Form of a Colony, in order to the Circulation of Money there, which the Inhabitants know nothing of, having hitherto only bartered Goods for Goods.

Stockholm, Sept. 10. We are assured that the old Treaty between this Court and Russia, which was sign'd the 22d of February, 1724. and renewed the 15th of August last, was only with this Reserve, that by the Renewal of it, the Crown and the States of Sweden do not propose nor mean to be obliged to have any Share or Concern in the Circumstances of the present War, nor in the Consequences with which it may be attended. It appears, that the Ratification of the new Treaty of Subsidy between this Court and France, meets with some Difficulty.

Dresden, Sept. 20. A Negotiation was lately upon the Carpet betwixt the Emperor and the King of Prussia, whereby the former offered to mortgage to the latter, 3 Principalities in Silesia, for a certain Number of Troops; but the said Negotiation is broke off. Mean time the Court of Saxony offers to send the Emperor 12,000 Men. They write from Poland, that King Stanislaus's Adherents who followed him to Koningsberg, drop off from him one after another every Day, and come to make their Submission to King Augustus.

From the Upper Rhine, Sept. 20. Some little Alteration is lately made in the Position of the Imperial Army. Six Regiments of Foot and 3 of Horse of the Brigades of Prince Ferdinand and the Count de la Marc, moved Yesterday nearer to Gernsheim. The Russians are pass'd the Neckar, and are gone to encamp near Wisloch. The French Army is still encamp'd at Hippenheim; but the Marshal de Coigny every now and then sends Detachments to post themselves along the Rhine towards Philipsburg, and 'tis reported, that the whole Army is forthwith to follow the same Way.

Heidelberg, Sept. 20. The Bulk of the Imperial Army extends to Leimen. All the Troops of which it is composed, are ordered to hold themselves ready for a March: And 4 Regiments of Russian Horse are gone to encamp 3 Leagues from Philipsburgh; but notwithstanding all these Motions, the Campaign is supposed to be as good as ended; and 'tis still reported, that Prince Eugene will set out from Vienna the 4th of next Month, and that his Baggage will set forward on the 26th of this Month.

Franckfort, Sept. 21. The Princes William and George of Hesse Cassel arrived this Morning from Heidelberg at Manheim, and return'd through that Place for their own Country. The Prussian Troops that were encamped before Mentz, repass'd the Rhine this Day at Weissenau, and are to march towards Heidelberg.

The

The Imperial Army is divided into 4 Bodies, one of which is incamp'd near Heidelberg, the other near Mentz, the 3d near Bruchſal, and the 4th in the Black Foreſt. The French inſenſibly ſteal up the Rhine; moſt of their Officers are at Worms. Their Army ruins all the Vineyards in the Neighbourhood of that City, and they fortify their Camp as if they were to make a long Stay there, which however we are aſſured will be but ſhort. Six Regiments of Horſe are order'd to march towards the Frontiers of Bavaria.

Vienna, Sept. 14. Sunday laſt being the Anniverſary of the happy Deliverance of this City from the Turks, who beſieged it in 1683 with an Army of 300000 Men, it was celebrated as uſual, by a ſolemn Proceſſion of all the Secular and Regular Clergy, the Emperor, and a great Number of other Perſons of all Ranks, from the Church of the Bare-footed Auguſtins to St. Stephens, which is the Metropolitan, where was a a Sermon, Te Deum, and High Maſs, celebrated by the Cardinal de Collonitz our Archbiſhop, under a treble Salvo of the Cannon from the Ramparts, and of the Small Arms of our Gariſon, which was drawn up under Arms for that Purpoſe in St. Stephen's Church-yard.

Berlin, Sept. 17. The King having reſolved to encompaſs this City with a new Wall, took a Survey of it Yeſterday all round, and was above 8 Hours on Horſeback.

Bruſſels, Sept. 22. Letters from the Frontiers of France ſay, that after the Campaign is over, 30,000 Men are to be detach'd from the Army upon the Rhine to take Winter Quarters along the Moſelle, and that the like Number is to be quartered in the fortified Towns of Flanders: And the Letters add, that Orders are ſent to the Intendants of the ſeveral Provinces of the Kingdom, for raiſing 48 new Battalions of Militia. 'Tis ſaid this Reſolution is owing to the Apprehenſions of the French Court, that the Imperial Troops deſign to penetrate thro' Luxemburg, in order to make an Incurſion into the three Biſhopricks, and to take their Winter Quarters there and in Champagne.

Amſterdam, Sept. 26. We hear by the Cohorn, one of the India Company's Ships arrived from Batavia, that M. Dirk Van Cloon, Governor General of the Indies, died at Batavia the 10th of March laſt, and that M. Abraham Petras is choſe in his ſtead.

Paris, Sept. 28. Letters of the 30th ult. from Naples ſay, that the King of the two Sicilies has nominated for his Ambaſſador to this Court, the Prince della Torrella Caraccioli, Gentleman of the Bedchamber to his Majeſty, Colonel of a Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, and Captain of the Halberdiers of his Guards, with 24,000 Ducats Salary, and 18,000 for his Equipage; and his Excellency is to ſet out the firſt of next Month for this Court.

Letters of the 10th from Leghorn ſay, that the Duke de Montemar has fixed on the 1ſt of October, for opening the Trenches before Mantua.

Thoſe of the 18th from our Army in Germany, ſay it is to ſeparate forthwith; that the Princes of the Blood are to ſet out the Beginning of next Month, on their Return to this Kingdom; and that the houſhold Troops will alſo ſet out on the 10th of the ſame Month. Mean time we are aſſured (ſays the Author of the Alamain, from whence this whole Article is taken) that Prince Eugene had Orders to undertake nothing this Campaign, becauſe if he ſhould have loſt one Battle, the French might have penetrated into the very Heart of Germany, for want of fortified Places to oppoſe them.

Advertiſement concerning this Book.

This Maſterpiece of religious Policy was publiſhed, many Years ſince, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper a Bookſeller at Amſterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jeſuit being informed that he had purchaſed this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then ſent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amſterdam, hearing it ſaid, ſome time after, to a Catholick Bookſeller, by Name Van Eyk, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jeſuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he ſhould not be under any Concern; but deſired he would inform himſelf what it was. Being told by the Bookſeller, that it was The Secret Inſtructions of the Society, the good Father, ſhrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, ſaid, that he ſaw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers howe ver thought it not adviſeable to purchaſe the whole Edition, which they ſoon after did, ſome few Copies excepted; from one of theſe it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which there ſaid to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.
